

Leanne Andrecyk, President

My daughter Ava is in grade 5. I am a full-time Mom, event producer and partner with ZedEvents great productions. I have been involved with the WSA for the past 4 years as a Member-at-Large, Secretary and committee member and am currently Chair of the WSA Family Fall Feast event committee.

Amanda Beresford, Vice President

My son Alex is in grade 5 and my daughter Lily is the newest addition to our School family starting primary. In addition to managing a household I also manage a busy retail store, Naturalizer. I have been volunteering for the past 4 years as a committee member and Member-at-Large and am currently the Chair of the WSA Valentine Family Dance event committee.

Tonya Malay, Past President

I am a mother of four with children at Westmount, St. Agnes and Citadel. When not volunteering at the schools I am a part-time pharmaceutical assistant. I have been a WSA volunteer and voting member for 12 years as well as involvement in our feeder PTA and School Advisory Committee (SAC).

Nancy Anningson, Treasurer

My daughter Sydney is in grade 4. I run my own consulting business. I've been involved with the WSA since Sydney started at Westmount. In addition to my role as treasurer I also spear-head the Junior Achievement offering 'Our Business World' programs for grade six students.

Naomi Shelton, Secretary

My son Matthew is in grade 4. My family life comes first but I'm also a full-time policy analyst with the provincial government. I've been involved in WSA for the past two years as a Member-at-Large and last year I took on the role of Secretary.

Diane Axel, Member at Large

My daughter Zoe is in grade 5 and my daughter Jenna is just starting with St. Agnes. When not having fun at school I work at the fun place of The Orb Factory as Director of Finance. I have been a voting member of the WSA for 8 years including 2 years as Treasurer and currently the Chair of the WSA Breakfast With Santa.

Tiffany Connell, Member at Large

My son Ben is in grade 4 and my daughter Emily is in grade 1. I work part-time as an Executive Assistant and spend the rest of my time being a Mom! I have volunteered for various WSA fundraising events over the past 2 years; this will be my first year as an official WSA Voting Member.

Shanda LaRamee-Jones, Member at Large

My son Owen is in grade 4 this year and I have enjoyed volunteering as a classroom reader for the past 4 years. I work in early reading promotion, bringing families and books together as Provincial Coordinator of the Read to Me Program.

Janet MacNeil, Member at Large

My son Michael is in grade 2. In addition to being a full-time mom, I work full-time as a Project Manager with Bell Canada. I have been volunteering at Westmount for the past 2 years and have been involved in several event committees during this time.

Stephanie Rice, Member at Large

My sons Andrew and Ryan are in grade 3 and grade 1, respectively. I have been involved with the WSA for the past 3 years. Outside of being a busy mother of two, I work at the IWK Health Centre in the role of Occupational Therapist with the preschool team.

Stacie Rimmer, Member at Large

Mom to Mya (going into grade 3), Drew (going into grade 1), and Emy (3 years old - a future Westmounter). In addition to family life, I also run my own design business. I have been involved as a volunteer with the WSA for the past 3 years and also sit on the School Advisory Committee (SAC).
